SCHOOLS OPENED AT LAST

6000 Pupils

The public schools opened on Monday with about $2% of the expected enrolment present. The school and health authorities had made elaborate preparations to receive and inspect the children, fifteen physicians and many school nurses being present Monday morning and made a rapid physical inspection of each child and which was followed thruout the week by a more thore individual examination. Two cases of diphtheria were found by the preliminary inspection and these children were not allowed to attend school.

The enrolment figures show that eli70 children reported this week as compared with 7550 at the opening of school a year ago, or $2.3 per cent. Of this number 4464 were in the grades he scompared with 5584 a year ago, or 9%. It is expected that 1394 children will be coroled later making the total school attendance 7564. The High School attendance stands up better than that in the grades the figure being 1705 with an expected addition of 352, or $9% enroled. The distribution of attendance follows, Classical, 824; Technical, 544; Vocational, 337.

BILLY SUNDAY AND CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

To the Editor Newton Graphic
Dear Sir:—
Boston appears to be busy just now preparing for the visit of "Billy Sunday." Public opinion is also busy, with the question of the value of such efforts. Speaking from many years of "Mission Work," in the "Old Country," I may say, that, if a man is not very careful, he may go so far into "Word Picture Painting" that he may find himself, unconsciously as it were, descending into "Buffoonery," and occasionally, I hope that this is not true for many reasons, the principle one of which, is, that I hear he first services in the changel of the Messential Country. This is very bad taste, I am told that "Billy" has a habit of doing this occasionally, I hope that this is not true for many reasons, the principle one of which, is, that I hear he first services in the changel of the Messential Country of the circumstance of the circumstance of the care told that "Billy" has a habit of doing this occasionally, I hope that this is not true for many reasons, the principle one of which, is, that I hear he lately made a "Sneering" reference to "Christian Science," Now if that is true, I am sincerely sorry, not for "Christian Science," Now if that is true, I am sincerely sorry, not for "Christian Science," but for "Billy, because when a man in his position meddles with what he does not understand, he is apt to make himself look foolish and detract from his otherwise usefulness.

I should ask no further proof of any man's ignorance of "Christian Science" than the fact, that he had "Sneered" at it.

Being "A Christian Scientist" myself now, it is needless to say, that I do not agree with some of "Billy's" methods. At the same time, I hope it is also needless to say, that I shall not "Sneer" at them! If, after his forthcoming "Mission" to Boston, he leaves it in a better condition Spiritually than he found it I heartliy wish him "God-Speed" for God knows there is plenty of room for it!

I will add this, however, that if, whilst he is in the City, he can find time to go as far as the corner of Fallegge.

4 New Refinements

Wi r and longer reats and deeper cushions, as indicated by arrow.

MAXWELL Motor Cars are now equipped with a new and improved windshield, still longer and more flexible springs, wider seats, deeper and softer cushions, dashlight, gasoline gauge, and other equally important refinements.

To the generous value heretofore present in the Maxwell product, these extra improvements have now been added.

This is in line with the Maxwell policy—so widely advertised-not to change the Maxwell in any essential detail, but to continue improving it so that it will always be a standard, recognized product, constantly abreast of the best practices of the industry.

Notwithstanding the superlative and sometimes confusing claims that are made in behalf of various automobiles, we restate our sincere conviction that Maxwell Motor Cars offer more real value per dollar than any other car in the world.

This too, is the belief of the thousands and thousands of Maxwell owners. And these beliefs are supported by actual and tangible facts. We actually know that within the entire history of the automo-bile business, no motor car—in any class or at any price—has equalled the Maxwell in honest dollar-for-dollar value.

And if you will examine a Maxwell, ride in it, compare it with other cars, consider its splendid record, reputation and past performances, you too, will know it.

SQUANDERED BY WILSON

Built Panama Canal Out of Current Revenues, Patriotically Hoarding Bonds in Treasury Which Democrats Filch to Hide a Deficit.

CARNIVAL OF DEBAUCHERY IN PUBLIC EXPENDITURE

Senator Penrose Believes the Looted Condition of the Treasury Will Necessitate the Withholding of Contracts for Battleships and Delay the Whole Scheme of Preparedness — Nation's Money Frittered Away to Finance Hare-Brained and III Advised Projects.

William R. Willcox, Chairman of brief but positive summing up of the extravagances of the Wilson Administration during the session of Congress just about to close. The Senator says:

When the country realizes what this Congress has done in the way of appropriations it will be dumfounded. Already, it has been shown that over a billion, seven or eight hundred million dollars have been appropriatedmore money than was ever appropri-ated in any one year in the history of the American government. The to-tal will reach nearly two billion dollars before the end of this carnival of debauchery in public expenditures is reached, because no account has been taken of the twenty-five millions for the Danish islands, the thirty millions which the government will probably have to refund as a result of the five per cent rebate allowed on importations brought across the seas in American bottoms, and other matters which are likely to come up

"It is only too evident that this bill which is expected to bring in some two hundred million dollars will absolutely fail to meet even the require ments for the ill-advised and certainly not urgent projects authorized by the present Congress.

"It is now claimed that these projects are to be financed by the issuance of Panama Canal bonds. The American people will regard such a proceeding as a very queer one be-cause the issuing of bonds by the Cleveland Administration largely helped to bring about the downfall of the Democratic party in 1896. A bond issue has ever since been viewed with abhorrence by the Democracy; now, we find the party leaders compelled, by reason of their extravagance and inefficiency, to resort to it.

"To defray the expenses of a nitrate plant and of a shipping board and nany other needless projects by the ssuing of Panama bonds will be in the last analysis equivalent to paying for them by bond issues. These bonds are lying in the treasury unissued as the result of the thrift and economy and wise administration of the Republican party.

"Only about $130,000,000 of bonds vere put out in the construction of the Panama Canal. The balance of the Panama Canal. The balance of the cost of that stupendous undertaking was paid out of current revenues; and now, to advance the novel doctrine that these bonds which represent the thrift of preceding years shall be issued for these questionable projects is, to my mind, preposterous. In fact, it was expressly provided in the Spooner Act that Panama Canal bonds should not be issued for any onds should not be issued for any other purpose than that of the con-struction of the Canal, and the in-gentous theory that they can be issued now to repay the treasury and that then the money can be squandered by the party in power to finance doubtful projects and to make good a deficit will not alter the fact that such a deficit exists.

"No amount of reasoning on the part of the Chairman of the Commit-tee on Finance will alter the fact that outside of preparedness there has been at least $200,000,000 of wasteful appropriations and expenditures by the present Congress. That condition of the trensury will absolutely neces-sitate the withholding of contracts sitate for battleships and delay the whole scheme of preparedness.
"The figures of the Secretary of may, but when the Secretary is up against the brute fact of not having money to pay for these projects he will then find that figures will not make a surplus in the treasury."

SACRIFICED COUNTRY'S HONOR AND INTEREST Mr. Wilson's defenders say he "has kept us out of war." As a matter of fact his policy in Mexico has combined all the evils of feeble peace with all the evils of feeble war. He has se-cured none of the benefits of war; but he has not avoided war. He has sacrificed the hon-or and the interests of the country; but he has not received the thirty pieces of silver.—From the speech of Col. Moreover when the war with Spain was through, it was through. But peace still continues to rage as furiously as ever in Mexico. Nor is this all. The instant effect of the the entry of both Cuba and the Philippines on a career of eight-een years of peace and pros-perity such as they had never ered history. But during these three years of Mr. Wilson's "peace," the Mexicans them-selves have been butchered by their own bandits steadly and without intermission; and Mexican women and children have died by thousands—probably by scores of thousands—of starva-tion, and of the diseases incident Mr. McKinley's war cost less pence; and it reflected high hon-or on the American people; whereas Mr. Wilson's peace has been one of shame and dis-honor for the American people, and one of ruin and bloodshed for the Mexicans.

The New York World, which once was outspoken in its admiration for the World six years ago. It is a a pretty fair letter of recommendation. Could the World say as much for President Wilson? Hardly, for the president has done all of the things from which the World at Hughes.—Kansas City Journal.

Having condoned the repeated murders of Americans by the Carranzistas, and having abased himself before Carranza, and having aided in placing Carranza in power, what is Mr. Wilson's reward? and whe pays it? son's reward; and whe pays it?
The reward is that Mr. Wilson has to place 150,000 treops on the border to partially prevent the raids and murders that his friend Mr. Carranza will not or cannot prevent; and the payment is made by the soldiers whe are slain and by the families of the guardsmon who go in want because their husbands and fathers have been called to the border to make good Mr. Wilson's refusal to let the regu-lar army administer such punishment to the bandits as to inspire In them a healthy fear.—From the speech of Col. A PICTURE OF HUGHES.

Mr. Hughes, now declares that the people do not know where Hughes stands, or what he stands for. This Wilson organ had no such criticism to make when Mr. Hughes was governor. The World said on May 17, 1910: "He dictated no nominations, controlled no convention, trafficked in no patronage, made no bargains with officeholders. He has rewarded noody for supporting him and punished nody for supporting him and punished nobody for opposing him. What in-fluence he has wielded over public opinion has come through his appeals to the voters themselves." That is the estimate of Mr. Hughes given by absolved

Mr. Hughes, with rare courage, frankness and penetration, is exposing the flimsy foundation for the claims of He is laying bare a record of extravagance, parti-sanship, sectionalism, incompetence, we agheadedness, vaccillation and in-sincerity which destroys the attempt to make a joss out of the President.

The Democrats must come out of their ecstatic trance and defend their stewardship. The President is to be put on the stump. We are to hear something beside Delphic prose poems.—

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

Greetings to the club women of the Newtons. The month of October sees the opening of a number of the clubs, but they do not get into full swing much before November. To serve the clubs has ever been the motto of the Club Editor and to this end the same cordial co-operation which has always been accorded is bespoken for this new season of work and pleasure. Copies of the club Year Books are very helpful in chronicalling the doings and insures greater accuracy in very helpful in chronicalling the do-ings and insures greater accuracy in the reports. Items for the column should be addressed to the Editor, 94 Charlesbank Road, Newton, and should be received by the first delivery on Thursday of each week in order to be sure of publication the same week, though occasionally it may be possible to include notices mailed or telephoned on that day. That this year may be better than any preceding one—for to stand still is in reality to fall back,— is the wish of the Club Editor.

The Bulletin of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs has just been received. It appears in a new and enlarged form with an increased subscription price. After the dignified, convenient-sized publication of the two years previous, it seems a pity that it was found necessary to include advertisements and make it of pity that it was found necessary to include advertisements and make it of a size and form scarcely to be distinguished from the common advertising sheets sent out by the department stores. It is hardly to be expected that club women will care to subscribe at double the price for a publication which contains twice as many pages of advertisements as it does of reading matter, when they are already flooded with such material gratis.

The Presidents' Conference, which opens the Federation year, will be held with the Dorchester Woman's Club as hostess at the Club House, Centre street, Dorchester, on Monday, October 16, at 2 o'clock. The subject for discussion will be "The Business of Running the Federation; its Work and Problems."

from five to seven cents per capita. Hon, John Barrett of Washington, D. C., will speak on "Pan-America and Pan-Americans" at the afternoon session. Further details will be given in a later issue.

The Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. S. A. Wiswell of Hillside road next Monday afternoon.

The first meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club for the season will be held in the Methodist Church, on Tuesday, Oct. 10, at 2.30 o'clock. Miss Maude Scheerer will give a reading. "Shakespere's Women." There will be a Tea and Reception to new members. The Year Books, which will be ready for distribution at the first meeting, prom-

C—urrent events, and extends far into the alphabet. Several new subjects will be taken up, and suggestions are welcome. The fee for any class is not large, and membership is not limited to club members. Detailed information in regard to the classes will be published later.

The Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. opened its season on Sept. 28 with a meeting at the home of the new president. Mrs. Edward G. Swift. Last Monday Miss Bacall was the hostess and Miss Mary E. Hyde was the leader for the afternoon, introducing the study of Shakespeare with a masterly treatment of "Shakespeare, the Man" and a discussion of his sonnets. Miss Hyde spoke of Shakespeare as a man greatly in advance of his time, his knowledge of birds, of the wild flowers and of nature study in general, as well as his views on mental healing being akin to the thought of today. A number of his sonnets were read.

Mrs. S. L. Eaton entertained the members of the Newton Highlands Monday Club for the opening meeting on October 2nd. This club also is to make a study of Shakespeare and the first program is oddly enough quite similar to that of the companion club, the C. L. S. C., given on the same afternoon, "Shakespeare, the Man." Mrs. Eagles, Mrs. Chipman, Mrs. Griswold and Mrs. Stone treated, The Boy, The Husband and Father, The Author and Writer. Selections and criticisms from his sonnets and poems were read.

Onion's Many Virtues.
Onions are a specific for the complexion. They should be boiled whole in milk—drink the latter—or steamed and eaten with bread and butter and cheese. Then they make a satisfying and nutritious meal, on which you can do brain work or manual labor. Try onions! The taste and afters away both.

Among the study clubs of Newton. Russia seems to be holding a prominent position, for this far-away country is the theme in many for the winter's work. The Newton Free Library is the source of supply for many members in writing up their particular phase of the topic. So to keep up to the demand or a little ahead if possible, the library has been adding some material of value. Some of the works of Andreyeff, Garshin, Goncharov, Gorky, Gogol, Korolenko, Kuprin, Pushkin, Tchekoff, Tolstoi and Turgenieff are represented, as well as a number of books treating of the literature.

It seemed to be the unanimous opinlon of many who addressed the gathering, that your city and your district certainly there are few men who have been so closely in touch with legislative matters in recent years or who are as familiar with the routine of law-making as yourself. This experience and this knowledge of legislative affairs equip you as one who would be unusually valuable to your district as representative.

Are Your PICTURES Suffering?

How many years since an expert has examined them?

It is the rule for owners of pictures to neglect them until their condition is so bad that the expense of their restoration is many times as great as if they had received proper care.

We give especial attention to restoration, framing and re-gilding and the quality of our work is unsurpassed.

Our Carrig-Rohane Shop, headed by Mr. Hermann Dudley Murphy, unquestionably America's most original and artistic designer of frames, has been the leading influence in the development of taste in framing for the last dozen years.

The Newton South Allies' Relief Association, which sholds its meetings in Trinity Church Parish House every Friday morning, is planning to send its next shipment of goods to British Soldiers.

It is hoped that those having comforts or knitted goods to send will have them at the parish house by that date so that as many comforts as possible may be given to the men who are suffering the hardships of war.

The largest number of fires occurs in homes and dwelling houses. These fires are largely due to the women who control the home and also control the husbands." The speaker said that in Lynn, he had 25 men speak before 90 Women's Societies with a result that in comparing the last four months of last year with this year the dwelling house fires had been reduced 50%.

Mr. O'Keefe began his fire prevention work in 1913 and in comparing the fires for the month of September the last three years they had been reduced as follows: September 1914, there were 1145 alarms of all kinds in this section. In 1915, there were but 1780 and this September as till further reduction brought the total down to 679. This shows a constant and progressive decrease in the number of alarms and is concurrent to the exceptionally large increase in the number of new buildings, automobiles and all lines of activity that leads to fires.

HOW HE PROPOSED

By SUSAN CLAGETT.

In the half light of an October evening the room was charming. To the man coming from the frosty outside air it was full of luxurious comfort. The man paused an instant, his eyes taking in every familiar detail; then they rested upon the woman standing before the open fire. "The fates are indeed kind," she said as he advanced toward her. "I was beginning to think myself for-"Never that," he answered, a smile lighting his face. "Think it the exigencies of business, anything, but not that." As he spoke he pushed an easy chair nearer the fire and sank into it with a sigh of content. "I have lost much, I know. You, who have it always, cannot appreciate the charm, the delight of such a room as this to a weary man. It is always before me as a haven of rest and has so tantalized me this day that I was forced to yield to my mood although my desk is piled high with unfinished work."

"I am glad it was so," she answered

"Are you not mistaken?" he questioned gravely. "It has seemed to me that I have lately been on the outside. It is as if you had shut a door in my face and said, 'Thus far, but no far-

"Your voice sounds angry. Are you trying to provoke a quarrel? Do not. I will not quarrel with you."

"Then why do you always fence with me?" he asked impatiently. "It has been this way for months past, but it is unlike you. I value our friendship.

WILSON KISSED THE HAND RED WITH AMERICAN BLOOD.

President Wilson explicitly shows that the Carranzistas, no once but repeatedly, made at tacks on American towns, and tacks on American towns, and killed American citizens, and mutilated them in September, 1915. Yet on October 19th, 1915, less than a month later, this same President Wilson, through his same Secretary of State, formally announced to Carran-za's agent that it was his "pleasure" to take the opportunity extending recognition to the de facto government of Mexico, of which General Venustiano Car-ranza is the chief executive." President Wilson thus recognized the government which, his own Secretary of State declares, had been less than a month pre-viously engaged in repeated assaults upon Americans, and in the invasion of American soil, government at whose head s General Carranza, who, less than two months previously, on August 2nd, 1915, had contempt August 2nd, 1915, had contempt-nously refused to pay any beed to any representations of Presi-dent Wilson on behalf of media-tion, saying that "under no consideration would I permit in-terference in the internal affairs of Mexico." President Wilson did not merely kiss the hand that slapned him in the face. He that slapped him in the face. He kissed that hand when it was red with the blood of American men, women and children, who had been murdered and mutilated with, as President Wilson, through his Secretary of State, says, "ruthless brutality."—From the speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewis-ton, Maine, in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

Don't "Jiggle"

When you take the receiver off of the switchhook of your telephone, a small electric lamp is lighted on the switchboard in front of the operator. To that signal she responds with the familiar "Number, please?"

After your connection has been made with the other person, there are no lights on the switchboard until your receivers are placed on the switchhooks again, which signals mean, to the operator, that the conversation has ended.

If you desire to get the operator's attention, you may do so by moving the receiver hook down and up, but IT MUST BE DONE SLOWLY, or the little lamp will not glow on the switchboard and the operator will not get any signal. Your observance of this method of signaling will insure more prompt attention by the operator and will help to make the service better.

A noteworthy society event of the past week in Newton Centre, was the wedding of Miss Margaret E. Merrill, A noteworthy society event of the past week in Newton Centre, was the wedding of Miss Margaret E. Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Blakeman Merrill of Lake terrace, and Mr. John Eliot Fowler, Williams, '13, of Boston, son of Mrs. A. H. Fowler, which took place Saturday evening in the Newton Centre Methodist Church. Pink, white and pale yellow, was the color scheme of the wedding, various shades of yellow being used in the gowns of the bride's attendants, and at the church, the floral decorations of Easter lilies, palms and white chrysanthemums, completed the combination.

The ceremony was performed at half after seven by Rev. William E. Huntington, of Newton Centre. As the guests assembled, Mr. Herbert W. Lowe played Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, and the Mendelssohn Wedding March as a recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was charming in a beautiful wedding gown of ivory white satin with point applique lace, which had been used on her mother's wedding gown. Her tulle veil was fastened with a band of orange blossoms, and her bridal boquet was a full shower of White orchids and lilies of the valley.

Eight young friends made up the bridal party; Miss Ethel C. Hockmeyer of Lowell, the maid of honor, wore a gown of pale peach tulle over apricot silk, and carried yellow roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Alice West and Miss Kathryn Flanders of New Haven, Conn., Miss Harriet Thayer of Harvard, Mass., Miss Mary Robbins of West Newton, Miss Phyllis Caldwell of New York, and Miss Sally Fowler of Washington, D. C. They were gowned alike in apricot tulle over apricot changeable silk and carried yellow roses. The matron of honor was Mrs. John Dewey.

Following the ceremony the guests repaired to the Brookline Country Club, where a large and brilliant reception was held at half past eight, which was attended by about four hundred guests prominent in the society of New York. Washington, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Milwaukee, Denver, Boston, Brookline and the Newtons.

The bridal party received in a floral arbor arranged with pink roses combined with festoons of greenery, and in the receiving line with the bride and bridegroom, were Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, the bride's parents, and Mrs. Fowler, mother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Merrill wore a handsome gown of blue velvet and chiffon with corsage boquet of gardenias and Mrs. Fowler was gowned attractively in orchid silk.

Lowe's Orchestra was in attendance and furnished a delightful program during the reception and for the dancing which followed.

There were twenty-five guests at the bride's table which was decorated in pink and white with pink roses arranged effectively as a centreplece.

Mr. and Mrs. Fowler left on a wedding trip going by motor to Manchester, Vermont, and Northern New York, and on their return will reside at 3 Concord avenue, Cambridge, where they will be at home after January first.

Y. M. C. A. EVENING CLASSES

The mechanical drafting class started Monday evening, Oct. 9th, with a very good enrollment and the outlook for its continued success is very bright. The teaching given in this course is almost entirely individual instruction which makes it possible for students to enroll at any time during the course.

The class in Spanish which starts Monday evening the 16th, has already a number of students signed up. To know how to speak and write in Spanish is something which is sought by many, as much of our future trade will be carried on with the Spanish-speaking countries.

or carried on with the spanish-speak-ing countries.

The Association offers these two courses at a very low price to the stu-dent, thereby opening up a splendid opportunity to those who may be in-terested.

WILBUR THEATRE—Last Saturday night completed the eighth week of that fascinating musical comedy, "Very Good Eddie" at the Wilbur Theatre, and the eighth week has been but a repetition of the other seven as far as business is concerned, which is but another way of saying that standing room only has been the rule after 8 o'clock each night. The music of the show plays no small part in its success, music of the popular order but not cheap; music as carefully notated as that of grand opera and with legitimate harmonies and cadences. Ragtime is almost wholly ignored. And the comedy is as legitimate as the music. Ernest Truex's methods are those of the trained farceur rather than the antics of a clown, and his companions in merriment, Alice Dovey, Anna Orr, Florence Earl, Oscar Shaw, Denman Maley and the others enter into the true spirit of the comedy. And so there is little to wonder at in its lengthened stay at the Wilbur. The tenth week begins next Monday, October 16th. WILBUR THEATRE-Last Saturday

Attention is invited to the annual report of the secretary of the Newton Welfare Bureau which is printed in this issue of the GRAPHIC. We are so accustomed to the thought that Newton is virtually free from misfortune and poverty that it is well to know the good work which is being done by this very efficient organization.

The questions which will be voted upon at the coming state election ught to receive careful consideration rom every citizen of Newton,

The Newton Branch of the Hughes Alliance can do considerable good work in rolling up an old fashioned majority for the Republican candidates.

FOR PREFERENTIAL VOTING

Considerable interest was mani fested Wednesday evening at the monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of the Auburndale Congregationa Church in the subject of preferentia voting which will appear on the ballo at the coming state election. Follow at the coming state election. Following the usual supper, President Will C. Eddy introduced Prof. Lewis J. Johnson of Cambridge, who has made preferential voting a study for several years. Prof. Johnson gave an interesting talk on the introduction and growth of the plan and sample ballots growth of the plan and sample ballots were passed among the audience and a mock election held, giving everyone a practical idea of the whole subject. Prof. Johnson said that 50 cities now had the plan in force and that only one had returned to the old methods. The plan he maintained, gave the majority element an opportunity to split its vote among several candidates and still be able to elect one of them. He urged every person present to work for the adoption of the act by the city of Newton.

JARVIS ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

Editor of the Newton Graphic:-

Editor of the Newton Graphic:

As is well known I was defeated in the recent Primaries for the Republican re-nomination to the House by a small margin. What is not so generally known is that my defeat was brought about by misrepresentation contained in an eleventh hour letter of Senator Ellis attacking me published over the signature in my opponent's newspaper, The Newton Graphic, a copy of which was mailed to practically every Republican voter, too late to be answered. This misrepresentation charged me with being directly or indirectly responsible for a representation charged me with being directly or indirectly responsible for a letter written by Mr. Arthur J. Davis, Supt. of the Anti Saloon League, criticizing my opponent and City Solicitor Bishop. I had absolutely no connection with this letter as is shown by the affidavit of Mr. Davis hereto appended. A change of only fifty-three votes cost me the nomination. I know of more than four times that number who were influenced, to the extent of changing their votes, by the Ellis letter. In one small Precinct there were over twenty such changes.

If the nomination of my opponent

If the nomination of my opponent had been fairly obtained, I should have accepted the result of the Primaries. There being, however, no possible question that it was unfairly obtained by means of the Ellis letter, and other mis-representations made the night before the primaries and spread broadcast throughout the city, I feel it a duty to myself and the Republicans of Newton to stand for re-election as I have been urged to do by hundreds of members of my party from every section of the City. I have accordingly filed Republican Independent papers. This was the only course I could pursue to right the wrong, and I have faith enough in the fair mindedness of the citizens of Newton to believe that they will repudiate at the polls the methods used to secure the nomination of my opponent.

HENRY W. JARVIS.

September 27, 1916.

I. Arthur J. Davis of Reading, Massachusetts do hereby make oath that I was solely responsible for the writing, mailing and publication of the letter which I sent to the Newton papers regarding Mr. John C. Brimblecom's Editorial of June 9th in the Newton Graphic respecting the Liquor Transportation Bill.

I had not seen or communicated directly or indirectly with Mr. Jarvis since May last except as I met him one day in August on Beacon St., when I simply passed the time of day with him and each hurried on his way.

(Signed) ARTHUR J. DAVIS. September 27, 1916.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 27, 1916.
Then personally appeared the above named, Arthur J. Davis and made oath that the above and foregoing statemen by him subscribed is true.

Does not prevent a vote for first choice only.

Gives the intelligent voter who exercises more than one choice, a larger influence in determining the result.

Its ballot is "fool proof." Any man who can make a cross can vote and have his vote count.

Prevents personalities in city elections.

Is aimed at no one man or group of men. 100 signatures will place any man's name on the ballot for mayor.

practically every defeated candidate at the city primaries for the past 25 years has run independently at the following city election. Why bother with a city primary?

ed to make her well enough to work We have found families struggling under a burden that by means of some slight adjustment could be made easily bearable. The G. family had begun bearable. The G. family had begun to buy their house through a co-opera-tive bank when Mr. G. was well and earning a good income. When we met them, a difficulty with his heart had them, a difficulty with his heart had decreased his earning capacity so that it was necessary either to lose the house on which he had paid more than half or to receive material aid in the feeding of his family. It was feasible, however, to transfer the mortgage to a Savings Bank, the interest on which as well as the City Tax could be easily met from the rent of half the house. We have settled with creditors for weekly payments so that a man need not have his wages trusteed; we have straightened out difficulties in obtaining insurance; we have helped the pering insurance; we have helped the per son who did not know his legal right

In 24 of our families we have had the problem of the backward child, who is unable without special training, to take his place as a useful member of society. Five of these children through our application are receiving special training, at the Waverley or Wrentham School, while others must wait their turn because of lack of room.

The problem of suitable dumping places for the refuse of the city of the size of Newton is one that will tax the best thought of our city officials. It is seriously complicated by the limited authority given by statute, which virtually says a man may do as he will with his own land. Unsightliness cannot be restrained by the police courte the owner of the land can be required (after due notice) to abate any unhealthy nuisance, while neighbors suffer in the interim.

The only real relief would require the expenditure of large sums of money for the erection of storing houses and incinerators, with subsequent complaints from the districts where they might be located.

The problem calls for the wisdom of a Solomon.

A quiet but charming wedding was solemnized on Saturday in the Church of the Resurrection, Richmond Hill, New York, when Miss Mary Victoria Vickers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Channing Bouve, of New-Dondings and Wr. Kenneth D. Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Vickers, became the bride of Mr. Kenneth D. Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Tucker of Oakleigh road, Newton.

The church was decorated most attractively with palms and autumn foliage and the ceremony was performed at twelve o'clock by Rev. William P. Evans, rector of the church. Before the bridal party entered the church Mr. Charles Vickers, brother of the bride sang "Oh Perfect Love."

The bride was very lovely in a wedding gown of pale blue chiffon velvet trimmed with gold, and carried a bridal boquet of Ophelia roses and autumn foliage. She was attended by her sister, Miss Olive Vickers of Richmond Hill, who was gowned in taupe satin trimmed with gold lace.

The bridesmaids were Miss Vera Mc. The bridesgroom was assisted by Mr. Gilbert Vickers, brother of the bride. The bridesgroom was assisted by Mr. Gilbert Vickers, brother of the bride with gold lace.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE NOTES

In answer to a statement reported to have been made by President Wilson to a group of Democratic women, to the effect that it was not the question of States' rights but the Negro problem which kept him from declaring for federal woman suffrage, Mrs. Helena Hill Weed, daughter of Congressman E. J. Hill of Connecticut, offers statistics showing that the maintenance of the supremacy of the white vote in the South is absolutely dependent on the enfranchisement of the women there. Mrs. Weed gives the following figures which she claims are based on the figures of the last census:

"All told the white women of the South outnumber the Negro women by more than 6,000,000 and the total Negro population by more than 2,000,000

"It is idle, therefore, to argue that the Negro problem is a reason for opposing the federal amendment. The only answer needed is to show the census figures. They dispel all use less fear."

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

To the Editor:

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

To the Editor:

On account of the numerous questions put to me regarding the illness of our son with infantile paralysis and on account of the worry by parents of other children, I feel that the following statement will be of interest to many Newton Centre people and may in some measure relieve anxiety. Although we believe that a greater portion of this anxiety is needless, we sympathize with those who are uneasy and realize that if the circumstances were reversed, we might be worrying in the same way.

It is quite true that Mark had infantile paralysis last summer, but it is equally true that he was cured several weeks ago so far as the acute phases of the disease are concerned. There remains the tedious task of restoring those nerves which ought to be controlling the muscles of his legs but are incapable of performing that duty because they were damaged by the disease while it was at work. Fair progress is being made toward recovery and, of course, that could not be taking place if the disease were still acute.

Mark was afflicted in the latter part of July while at Plattsburg. The disease reached its maximum early in August and was driven out while he was still at the hospital. He remained there a while longer, and it was only when the local doctors and local board of health and the specialists were agreed that there would be no danger to our younger children nor to any one else from contact with him that he was brought home. In the meantime clothing and other things with which he had been in contact were either hunged or therease.

when the local doctors and local board of health and the specialists were agreed that there would be no danger to our younger children nor to any one else from contact with him that he was brought home. In the mean time clothing and other things with either burned or thoroughly sterilized and the whole house was generally purged. During the entire time, the younger children have been most carefully watched not only by their mother, but by the physicians and trained nurses.

In view of all these facts, we are convinced that whatever the truth regarding the means by which the disease is taken, there has been for some weeks no danger from contact with Mark or any other member of the family. In fact, curusly enough, we face the disease there, we are all in a more completely harmless condition than if we had not had it there at all and we feel that we run more risk in having our children go into contact with other children than the other children run on our account. As a matter of fact, we have very little remaining fear about mere personal contact, because we have learned of cases where completely isolated children were commonity of the proposition of the pr

He also favored the measure which was working successfully in 0 cities.

The questions were then discussed from the floor, the most interest being aken in the preferential volting measure which was briefly explained by J. Brimblecom. It was opposed by Messers. Nathan Heard, Thomas W. Yhite and Harry D. Cabot, largely on count of the abolition of party designations.

At the suggestion of Mr. E. K. Hall he club voted on each of the quesions with approximately the following result:—

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Franklin Nye Thatcher late of Newton in said County, decays at the Plymouth Theatre, next Monday night, October 30. "A Lady's Name." the vehicle which Miss Tempest has chosen for her appearance in this city, is capital fun. Drama may have its big punch, its one scene so tense, so dramatic that the play scores, and musical comedy its one tuneful, catchy song that stamps it with popular approval. To see Marie Tempest, the exponent of polite comedy, cooking a dinner, with the aid of a cookbook, surrounded by the kitchen mechanics, who ofer her half-hearted assistance, is assuredly one of the most novel-conceit in years. The act alone without the brightness and the smart dialogue of the other two, is enough to stamp the play a smashing success. W. Graham Browne and an excellent company of players are instrumental in giving the star efficient support.

shubert Theatre, Boston, will be the Messrs. Shubert's most important new musical production of the season, Cliften Crawford, in "Her Soldier Boy"—with John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romaine, supported by a great company of an even hundred, seen for the second week. The piece is shrewdly called a musical play, for it combines most delightfully the more alluring qualities of both musical comedy and operetta; having the gay fun of the one and the dramatic story, lovely romance and splendid music of the other. The Messrs. Shubert have provided a fine supporting cast that includes Harold Vizard, Clarence Harvey, Cyril Chadwick, Frank Ridge, Jack McGowan, Ralph Herbert, Louise Galloway, Lillian Tucker, Eliz Gergely, Eleanor Dawn and other metropolitan players of distinction. There is a beauty chorus of slixty, a symphonic orchestra of thirty, under the baton of Augustus Barretty and a colorful mise-en-scene.

When you take the receiver off of the switchhook of your telephone, a small electric lamp is lighted on the switchboard in front of the operator. To that signal she responds with the familiar "Number, please?"

After your connection has been made with the other person, there are no lights on the switchboard until your receivers are placed on the switchhooks again, which signals mean, to the operator, that the conversation has ended.

If you desire to get the operator's attention, you may do so by moving the receiver hook down and up, but IT MUST BE DONE SLOWLY, or the little lamp will not glow on the switchboard and the operator will not get any signal. Your observance of this method of signaling will insure more prompt attention by the operator and will help to make the service better.

The above suggestions are applicable to all subscribers located where the light signalling system is in use.

WHAT WILL THE BILLY SUNDAY CAMPAIGN DO FOR BOSTON?"

BY ALLAN C. EMERY

Chairman Boston Sunday Campaign Committee

FIRST-I believe that the atmosphere will be so charged with religion men and women will find real pleasure in thinking and talking about the per things of life and that money making and pleasure seeking will not ed out the most important part of one's life, namely, the spiritual

SECONDLY-I believe that the claims of Christ upon the hearts and lives en will be recognized as perhaps never before and that rich and poor, high low, will find the peace and contentment for which they have long been nly striving.

THIRDLY—I believe that thousands will find power to conquer their thirs intoxicating liquors and that the wife and children of the drunkard will him sober for the first time in many years. Thus will houses of miser nade over into homes of sunshine and gladness.

N. H. S.

n interesting feature of the foot-game this afternoon between New-High School and M. I. T. on Cla-Field, is the fact that two broth-will be members of the opposing ms, Leo Hughes, playing left end Newton, and Joseph Hughes, playthe same position for Tech. The thes family will be on the winning, whoever wins.
